2. I have handed to Mr. Robert McManus, of the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the [redacted]

[redacted] I have also handed to him, pursuant to his request, the Peking broadcast of 23 March attacking the Subcommittee for its handling of J. B. Powell. The broadcast indicated that CIA had approached Powell with an offer to pay him for military information. McManus stated that Powell had so testified in connection with his prepared statement before the Subcommittee, a copy of which he will furnish me.
